

Historic St. George Street House

As St. Augustine's premier private home, The Historic St. George Street House displays the grandeur of the city in which it calls home and offers a majestic setting perfect for accommodations for 4-6 people. With a formal dining room, a gentleman's study, multiple guest rooms, solid pine plank floors, lavish interiors, period antiques, and opulent trim details lend an enveloping sense of style ideally suited for you or your guests.

The private grounds include an intimate garden shaded by century old trees and surrounded by skyline views of historic churches and museums. The Historic St. George Street House is an escape to an era gone by where a king once lived, milestones are celebrated, and memories are made.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The Historic St George Street House, a 1762 historic and private estate, has a living and dining area, kitchenette, master bedroom, 3 other bedrooms, full bath and half bath. Once home of a king, the main house has been transformed into a luxurious retreat.
